Centre of Excellence in Community Education

Linda Lucas Legacy Award Application

Circle: Paddle / Canoe Fund

1. What is your name and what pronouns do you use?
(For example, she/her, he/him, they/them, etc.)
2. What's your address?
(Please provide your current mailing address.)
3. How can we contact you?
(Please share your phone number and email address.)
4. When is your birthday?
(This helps us confirm age eligibility.)
5. How do you identify?
(Feel free to share how you self-identify. This can include your Indigenous background, cultural identity, or any other way you see yourself.)
6. When do you need these funds?
(Tell us when the funds will be needed for your activity or project. This could be immediately or at a specific time.)
7. What's your budget?
(Please give us an idea of how much everything will cost. You can break down the costs if you like. This could include materials, transportation, or any other expenses related to your project.)
8. What would you like to use these funds for?
(We want to hear about your project or activity! You can tell us in writing, or you're welcome to express it in any way that feels comfortable for you—whether that's through a video, artwork, photos, or something else. If you have any examples of past work or creative projects, feel free to include those as well! Think about how your idea reflects your culture, community, or personal interests. Be as creative as you want!)

Please submit applications to clairissak@ipsociety.ca or by mail.
